EMPLOYEES ATTACKED.

Shipyard employees, who were unarmed, were on their way to work at 8:36 o'clock this morning, when they were attacked, it was charged by the police, by Sinn Feinera and shooting soon began. The solders checked the trouble. At an early hour other disorders occurred in the neisthorhood of Swarts Row. a Unionist quarter, which was attacked by Sinn Feiners yesterday. Shops were wrecked, and to clear the streets the troops opened fire on an armored car.

In this morning's disturbances, foral avenue became the scene of intense activity. Baton charges by the police were watched with interest from windows of stores.

Armored cars arrived at the scene, headed for Shankhill, an Orange levality, to avenge the "marrowbone" invasion of the Unionists. Crumi'a Read was huming with workers, who found themselves "stormbound."

An elderly lady at the railroad deport, stared at the crowds and remarked to a worker.

"A there a big excursion on?"

"Yes, ma'sm." was the reply, "to heaven or the other place."

There have been 135 fires since Wednesday.

TWO MEN FOUND SLAIN IN COTTAGE

SANTA CRUZ, Aug. 30.—Theodore Schmidt of Newman and George Johnson of San Luis Ranch, near Pachego Pass. Stanislaus county, were found tonight shot to death in a cottage owned by Johnson near Garneld Park. The men had gone to the cottage a week ago for an outing, according to a report to the police. No weapon was found in the cottage by the police, it was stated. They reported, however, that there was a quantity of wine discovered. The lights were burning in the cottage and the window blinds were drawn. Two automobiles were in the yard. Schmidt was found on a bed, shot through the temple. Johnson was found in another room, on the floor, shot through the back. Coroner Congdon rates that the men apparently had been dead about a week.

big trans-Atlantic lines, were indicted by the Federal grand jury here today on charges of conspiracy and restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman antirust law.

The indictments included the International Mercantile Marine, Atlantic Transport, Cunard Steamship Company, Ltd., Anchor Line, BoothAmerican Shipping Corporation.
Campaignie Generale Trans-Atlantique, Kerr Steamship Company, members of the trans-Atlantic Associated Freight Conferences and directors of the Steamship Freight Brokers' Association.

DISSOLUTION SUIT.

An injunction and dissolution suit

An injunction and dissolution suit against the defendants named in the adjectments as members of the tion and the Associated Freight Con-ferences was entered simultaneously. The indictment charged and the petition in the suit alleged that the defendants, on Jan. 1, 1917, con-spired and have continuously vio-lated the Sherman law by restraining interstate trade and foreign com-merce in grain, oil, lumber, coal and other commodities and manufactured other commodities and manufactured articles produced throughout the United States and in foreign coun-

United States and in foreign countries

The indictment cited that upwards of 50 per cent of the foreign trade and commerce in the commodities and articles named pass through this port, 20 per cent of which, it was said, is handled by freight brokers and forwarders. Of the commodities handled by the latter, it was charged, upward of 80 per cent is handled by about seventy-five freight brokers and forwarders, members of the Steamship Freight Brokers' Association, and is transported by the defendant steamship companies.

ALLEGATIONS MADE. ALLEGATIONS MADE.
The indictment alleged that the steamship companies included in the trans-Atlantic freight conferences and the brokers and forwarders included in the Steamship Freight Brokers' Association entered into agreements not to permit any freight broker or forwarder to become a member of the association unless he agreed to observe 'the constitution and bylaws of the Steamship Freight Brokers' Association. It also alleged that a prospective member had to ra' Association. It also alleged prospective member had to by the freight rates offered ited by the authorized agents

Brokers' Association. It also alleged that a prospective member had to abide by the freight rates offered or quoted by the authorized agents of the steamship companies.

It was charged that the defendants agreed to discriminate against freight brokers and forwarders by refusing to pay any brokerage fee to any person not a member of the association, and to control and dominate through the offgantzation and rules of the New York Produce Exchange, of which the freight brokers and forwarders were alleged to be required to be members.

BLACKLIST CHARGE.

The indictments further asserted that the defendants agreed to blacklist all freight brokers and forwarders were described to the commission today for authority to increase its rates for both gas and electricity, on the ground that operating costs have increased on account of wings advances and rising prices of material.

BLACKLIST CHARGE.

The indictments further asserted that the defendants agreed to blacklist all freight brokers and forwarders who were not acceptable to or amproved by the defendant steamship companies and the board of directors of the Steamship Freight Brokers' Association, and by suspension or expulsion from the association agreed to control, dominate and direct the course of the principal part of trade and commerce in transporting, shipping or ferwarding freight throughout the United States and to and from foreign countries.

"By so doing," the indictment continued," the defendants restrained, prevented and eliminated all competion in such trade and commerce."

Other defendant concerns named include Furness-Withy & Co., Ltd. the United Fruit Company and prominent steamship companies of virtually all foreign courties.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 80 .-John Ferguson, who was injured twenty-four days ago in a motortwenty-four days ago in a motorcycle accident, has not fully regained consciousness, according to the reports from the Dee Hospital tonight.
The vitality displayed by the young man is pronounced as exceptional by the medical men of the city, who have been watching the case. It is said that, although, Ferguson's condition is still serious, his chances of recovery are getting better all the time. He received a fracture at the base of the skull when he was thrown from his motorcycle in a collision.

tips for violations of the State antidiscrimination law.

In the eastern part of the State a tip of $3 will get a car set on a siding which is suitable for hay loading. A man who desires a grain car must pay $10. In the central and western parts of the State the tip is $5 for a grain car.

The railroads, asked for an explanation, pointed out that it was pretty hard to tell what had happened when a car was reported set out at a station in "bad order." Also it frequently happened that empty cars were reported set off because of the train picking up so many loaded cars that it could not make the schedule required, so the crew set some empties out and advised that they be picked up. When the next crew came along it found the cars loaded with wheat.

MEASURE DISCUSSED.

"The President is hereby authorized and directed within ninety days after this act becomes a law to give notice to the several governments. respectively, parties to such treaties or conventions, that so much thereof as impose any such restrictions on the United States, will terminate on the expiration of such periods as may be required for the giving of such notice by the provisions of such reaties of conventions.

"This part of the bill has not been much discussed. The treaties affected are the commercial treaties on which our rights to do business with the nations of the world depend. Manifestly, we cannot terminate these treaties without the consent of the country affected. Since they are reciprocal, all we have a right to do is to terminate the treaties according to their terms.

TERMS OF TREATIES.

TERMS OF TREATIES. TERMS OF TREATIES.

"Some treaties may be terminated on a fixed notice. Others are to run a definite number of years and may then be terminated on a fixed notice. The countries will scarcely consent to modify the treaties giving us a right to discriminate against their commerce and at the same time permit us to enjoy the rights which the treaties secure to us. A formal notice will probably result in the entire abrogation of the treaty.

reaty.

"Passing for the moment any uestion of international good faith affected.
"While I am not charged with this have called to your attention."

PERIOD ENDS ERIDAY.

The ninety-day period provided in Section 14 expires Friday. Government officials have not thus far given any intimation as to what steps were contemplated toward carrying out the section. Both at the State Oepariment and the Shipping Board. It is known, existing commercial treaties have been under study for weeks to de'ermine just what clauses fall within the meaning of the section. but officials have not been willing to comment on the results of this investigation.

Section 24 also has caused some agitation in diplomatic circles here and is understood to have figured in many diplomatic conferences at the State Department.

capital and the stirring of class feeling.

Thus the Socialistic proclivities of Mr. Wilson will find expression in Gov. Cox's campaign. Those who are now favoring him as the champion of the League of Nations will find themselves supporting a futile issue as to the League, while they will at the same time be backing upradical propaganda against those principles of representative government and constitutional limitation which it is of great importance that we maintain in these critical times of militant socialism.

CONSTITUTION: PEACE WITH SOUTH FACT. (MY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

PEKING, Aug. 26.—Premier Chin Yum Pong, addressing news-paper correspondents today, said that any people's assembly called by the present government would be limited to electing a new Parlia-ment. The government will not accept the idea of a superseding body which would not be representative and without legal status, he declared.

The only legitimate object of a people's assembly, according to the Premier, would be the framing of a constitution to replace the present one. The question of summoning a new Parliament has the Premier's specific.

sanction.

Peace with the southern government at Canton was an established fact since elimination of the obstacle to unification (the Anfultes,) and the stacle to unification (the Anfultes,) the Premier asserted, and the proclamation of unification was only waiting determination of practicable means to give it effect. The Premier said the government's monthly receipts were $5,000,000 and its expenditures $13,000,000, which he proposed to square by the reduction of the army and encouragement of industry.

Among the guests at Ikao were nearly 3000 persons from Tokio, staying at villas and hotels. Some had narrow escapes, among them being Princess Higashikuni, sister of the Emperor, whose husband accompanied the Crown Prince to France, and who still is in that country. Baron Makino and Marquis Salonii, members of the Japanese delegation at the Versailles Peace Conference, also escaped in safety. Reports state that several persons were injured.

A Few Plain Facts

Although manufacturing costs on Victrolas have advanced at least 166% in the past three years, the average retail price is only 36% higher. Compared with advances on practically everything in use today of 100% to 200%, this showing is remarkable.

—Prices cannot go lower for a long time—they are more likely to go higher on account of increase in freight rates.

First Day Registration Puts Old Records to Shame.

Fifteen Per Cent Increase is Expected on Final Count.

Growth Shown in All Grades; Few Stay Out to Work.

New high record marks were es-tablished yesterday in the enroll-ment of pupils at all of the local schools. Principals of all schools re-schools. Frincipals of all schools in particular reports a large enrollment, but elementary, intermediate and high school registrations for the first day were the largest in the city's history. It is believed the figures, which will be available tomorrow, will show that the enrollment this year is about 15 per cent greater than last year, or about 110,000.

At all of the elementary schools the beginners classes are crowded as they have never been before, the principals report. At the intermediate schools the enrollment is the largest in the history of the school system. At Central there were 121 more beginners registered yesterday than during the preceding year.

In each of the high schools the enrollment is unprecedented. Attendance at the Los Angeles High School yesterday was characterized as enormous. At Polytechnic fit was reported the enrollment was the largest the school has ever had, and Manual Aris sent 400 students home because the clerical staff could not attend to all who applied for admission. At Hollywood High the registration was about 2000, which is about 500 more than the school-rooms accommodate.

Principals at the neighborhood schools had not expected much ef an enrollment yesterday for several reasons, chief among which is that the schools are being opened two weeks earlier this year than is customary, and it was thought that many of the children would still be in the country working in the orchards and vineyards. The enrollment was greater, however, than it was at the end of September last year.

Resistration at the schools in September, 1918, was 94,959, which was an increase of about 7000 over 1918, the enrollment for that year being strait on the schools of the Board of Education, yesterday declared that the board is arranging to house all of the children. Dr. E. J. Lickley of the compulsory education bursau declared yesterday that there are fewer requests being made this year than last for children who have had permits of children who have had permits of the children who have had permits to remain away are now surrender-ing them. Hundreds of applications are be-ing made also for part-time study, Dr. Lickley declares.

PLANS WAY TO GET AT RENT HOGS.

Apartment Houses May be Made Public Utilities to Stop Shutting Off Gas.

Apartment-house owners who turn off their tenants' gas and electricity to enforce demands for incressed rents may find themselves hauled be-fore the Board of Public Utilities if plan now under consideration by that branch of the city government a carried out.

that branch of the city government is carried out.

During the epidemic of high rents the board, of which Robert Wirsching is president, has received many complaints from tenants that they were lightless and heatless because of trouble with their landlords. The board in its annual report to the Mayor and City Council, completed yesterday, states that it believes that if apartment-houses were legally recognised by the city government as public utilities and landlords designated as retailers of gas, electricity and other forms of public service, then injustices complained of may be wiped out during the coming winter by stringent board notes. The board also says it believes that on account of the increased use of the public highways by automobile freight carriers, the owners of these lines should be compelled to pay a special tax as their share toward the maintenance of roads. The report says that these trucks with their heavy loads wear out the roads faster than ordinary automobile traffic, and that it is unjust to provide entirely for this wear and tear from general taxation.

Looted Vaul's Owners Free of Responsibility.

Owners of safety vaults that are illaged by thieves are not always seponsible for valuables lost through the thievery, according to a ruling handed down yesterday by the State Supreme Court, affirming the judg-ment in favor of the defendants in an action brought by John Genta, assignee, against Illingworth &

Dunnell.

The defendant firm was in the mercantile business at Randsburg, Kern county, and had in its establishment a concrete vault where a number of its customers deposited bonds, morigages, money and other valuables.

On the night of May 10, 1918, the vault was burglarized and the valuables taken. Then the depositors who had lost property assigned their claims to the plaintiff, and he brought an action to recover $5323. General negligence was charged, but the court held that the question of the negligence of the defendants was open to doubt.

For months the bishop had planned to journey to the bedside of his mother, who had been bed-ridden for several years, but it was not until a few weeks ago that he was able to start for Ireland.

When he left Sloux City his mother was in a serious condition. He feared that he would arrive too late to see her alive.

SOCIETY

A letter from Mrs. Mary Banning Norris tells of her arrival in Paris, on August 3 after a delightful trip on the Aquitania. On Leard she met Mrs. Heater Owsley, a sister of Carter H. Harrison of Chicago and of William Preston Harrison of this city. They and Mrs. John Clews of New York plan a trip to the battle-field of Chateau Thierry this week. Mrs. Norris has already met Mrs. Morl Reed and Mrs. Clara Carpenter Nave. Mrs. Norris says that Paris is absolutely changed and there is no night life at all. At 11 o'clock, it is dark and not even a motor or bus is to be seen.

Mrs. Norris plans a trip by airplane from Paris to London soon.

THE INCOMING TIDE. A Nineteen thousand alien immigrants were received at Ellis Island last week. were received at Eilis Island last week. This is the greatest number arriving in this country in a single week for ten years and indicates that the tide of immigration is returning to its former proportions. Although there are labor needs in this country, this influx is not necessarily a good sign. A great many of them will be found undestrables before many moons have passed. They are not ready to go where help is most needed. When the country has the word "Welcome" on the doormat at every entrance some trouble is bound to squeeze in. We are sure to get a section of the trouble-makers along with the rest. It is hard to make a good citizen out of a man who is determined to be a bad one and has had a lot of practice.

A HORSE APIECE.
Lots of Russians surrendered to the Poles under inducements made to them in an unusual manner. Balloons sent up over the Russian lines dropped tickets entitling the holder to safe passage and a reward of a thousand marks for each horse brought in. The Poles were in need of animals. The icks had horses and not much else. Cossacks and norses and not nuch established had no particular grievance against the Poles and would as lieve sell their horses as not. So they surrendered singly and in large numbers and brought a lot of horses in with them. If a fellow-Red didn't horses in with them. If a relieve his company would knock feel like quitting his comrade would knock him in the head and take his horse away from him to deliver to the enemy. Now the Poles have a lot of horses and an equal number of disarmed Russians. It is expen-sive to feed the Reds, but it is easier than to have to fight them.

HOME EXPANSION.

Every dinky little individual thinks he must keep up with the national expansion. THE BOLSHEVIST STRIKE.

Eastern radicals are making a test of strength through the medium of a strike on the electric railroads of New York and Brooklyn. By reason of the exorbitant demands made and the methods used to intrigue or bully the men into quitting their jobs the term "Bolshevist" strike has been applied to it by the eastern press.

It is a strike primarily against the public interest, for the demands could not be granted without making a big increase street car fares and virtually turning the lines over to the unions. The sine qua non of the demands is the closed-shop. The leaders proclaim that the men will not return until the companies agree that shop and platform committees shall be the sole judge of who shall be employed and who shall be dismissed. Consmittees of the unions must also be permitted to establish the conditions under which the cars shall be operated.

The street-raffway lines are now in the sands of a receiver and Federal Judge Mayor is legal custodian for the B.R.T. Two weeks ago the demands of the radical unionists were presented to him; and he replied that he could not, under the Federal authority by virtue of which he acts, permit the operation of the lines under closed-shop conditions. He said it was his duty to see that the lines were operated without class distinction, that he could not refuse to give employment to men simply because they did not belong to some specified organiza-tion, and that he could not agree that any should have a superior right to a position by reason of his membership or non membership in a labor union.

The radical leaders caused statements to be published to the effect that the men were willing to arbitrate their differences with the companies. This is a popular radical form of half-truth that is more false than simple falsehood; for the first condition of arbitration was a stipulation that the roads should be operated under closed-shop rules. That must be granted before arbitration could begin.

While the pretext for the strike is a refusal on the part of the receivers for the companies to grant the demands of the strikers the real cause is declared to be a lesire on the part of the radical elements in New York to determine how much sup-port they could secure and how far they might be able to go if they were to attempt a violent insurrection for the purpose of replacing constitutional government with a government of soviets. The meaning of a "Bolshevist strike" is a strike which is ac-companied by violence and is brought to mask a movement for a revolution of violence...

In the case of the New York and Brooklyn electric railway strike the public is the first and greatest sufferer. The cars were not operated Monday, although men were available for a partial service, be-cause both the police and the companies feared violence. The radicals have organized "wrecking crews" who are detailed to wreck all cars which the companies try to New York City is now paying the penalty for electing a Mayor who made common cause during his campaign with the radical Mayor Hylan has already taken a posttion which lends encouragement to the radical elements. In place of calling upon the police to do their duty in preserving order and warning strikers that he would call for the State militia in case the police could not handle the situation, he has issued statement in which he tries to lay the blame for the strike on the companies, as-serting that they had encouraged the strike as a means to securing increased fares.

Mayor Hylan is an executive official. He s without authority to pass judgment upor the industrial dispute of which the strike is a part; but he has taken oath to enforce the ordinances of the City of New York to protect the life and property of all citizens when unlawfully attacked. Refusing pro-tection to the employees of the electric railway companies who desire to operate cars on the streets of New York is a viola-sible for a family to have a furnace that was part refrigerator-something that would ting ice, as it were. Then we could draw water from one side and have a top for the iced lemonade on the other. By crossing the electric fan with the electric toaster we would get the electric equapole which would be red hot at the equator and ice cold at the poles. But, anyhow, science has demonstrated that the electric current can be used for cooling as well as heating While natural or artificial ice is obtainal at from 20 to 60 cents a hundred there would be no use for experimentation, how-ever. The thunder-juice system would be too costly. But if the ice man gets to de-manding a dollar a hundred for his wares the electrician will proceed to get busy. Always when the profiteer grows too greedy science will come to our relief. We cannot be altogether miserable for any great length of time. By the time the plutocrats are gouging us a dollar for gasoline some highbrowed thinker will have evolved an en gine that will need only a few drops of the Pacific Ocean in its veins to make it rui

Before the session was over he was obeying the orders of the camera tyrants, just as might a youth being posed for his first visit to the photographer. He would smile genially when told to look pleasant and he beamed graciously into a lens less than a yard away from his benign face. (BUTINOT

Senor Creel says rightly that: American business men will not go to Mexico, however, until they are confi-dent it is solid, sound and sincere. Pro-tection must be assured. From my own experience in America and with her citizens I know that they are honest and not after territory. By aiding in Mexico now the United States can help solve the problems of both countries and can gain the confidence of other Latin-n countries. Mexican governments have had much the appearance of gigantic spider webs spread to catch foreign flies. But that policy has done a great deal more into Mexico itself than to its neighbors. Those responsible for the former iniquities however, are, for the most part, scattered or dead. They have fallen victims to the vengeance of their own people. The leaders now in power, according to Senor Pes quiero, have, for the most part, lived in the United States. They know something of the rights and obligations of free govern-ment and are sincere in their desire to lead Mexico out of the tangled thickets of bar barism to a place in the sun.

GE LIMIT FOR TEACHERS A It is suggested that 45 should be the age limit for teachers, that in any case prefer ence should always be given to applicants under that age.

With the present wall about the shortage of teachers this seems a rather inappropriate time to institute such a ruling. But. apart from that, why this glorification o youth, this arbitrary preference for young teachers in a profession which, above all others, must be enhanced by knowledge and experience. A great many people of both sexes do not reach their best development before middle life, and certainly in the teacher's profession few of them have ao cepted it as their life's work much before that age. Young women teachers usually have a weather eye open for matrimony and have rarely "quit strugglin" before 45. while male teachers are invariably on the cokout for some sphere in which their opportunities of advancement are greater. But when they are still in the profession at 45 they can usually be counted upon to settle down and make the very best of those mercies they have.

Moreover, in the great colleges the best professors vary in age from 45 to 60. They usually find it almost impossible to secure Carranzistas who, failing to establish a positions of responsibility and eclat before middle age. If we consider anyone over 45 unsultable to be a teacher in the elemen tary schools we should be consistent enough to regard all public officials engaged in helping run the country as superannuated at that age. We should certainly discountenance the election of any judge, Senator, Congressman or President over 45 years of age, and if the rule held good in business wholesale resignations of presidents, vice presidents, managers, etc., would be neces sary forthwith. It is safe to say that most of the responsible positions in the country are now held by men and women past 45. both in private business, government or so cial affairs. Presidents of women's clubs rarely attain that distinction before middle life. And even our most scintillating so ciety leaders have to attain that age before their ladership is assured.

RIPPLING RHYMES. MILD SEPTEMBER.

MOVIE STUFF

When fair September's at the gate a lot of troubles pull their freight. "At last," we sigh, "we may expect a climate soothing and correct; so let the timbrel and the correct; so let the timbrel and the lyre be sounded, though we still perspire; let joyful music echoes wake, e'en though we sizzle, fry and bake." September, month of queenly charm, too often proves a false alarm. She can be hotter than July and August, too, and not half try. But we forget the breaks she's made when she, in autumn leaves arrayed, comes, promising an early frost, and coolpromising an early frost, and cool-ness, heedless of the cost. We're glad to take her at her word and say she is a peach, a bird, for we're so sick of summer heat, with pavements melting in the street, of torrid days and burning nights and weepful walls of weary wights!
September seems to herald fall, and fall's a boon to one and all, when there's a chill in every breeze and we've a decent chance to freeze and catch bad colds and have the flu and all the ills that ever grew. Our furnaces we soon must stoke and get our greatcoats out of soak and ask the coal man if he'll wait six months for payment for his slate. Septem-ber stirs up thoughts like this; what wonder if we're filled with bliss? WALT MASON.

The Change of Viewpoint When Higgins used to tell me the funny things his baby said, His clever tricks and actions, the joys of fatherhood, joys of fatherhood,

He used to bore me awfully, I used to yawn and scratch my head And shift the conversation as quickly as I could.
But since I have one of my own, I listen to him eagerly,
And cackle at the humor of each childish repartee,
And as soon as he has finished I am ready with my come-back
"That reminds me of something that my baby said to me."

When Higgins used to start to brag about the things his flivver did And how it climbed the mountains on a modicum of gas. I used to say: "I'm sorry, but I got to go," and grab my lid And beat it for the out-of-doors and think him quite an ass; But now I have one of my own, I'm very glad to meet him And listen to his vaporings and let him talk his fill And tell his yarn, for now you know I've always one to beat him, As I describe the manner that my flivver took the hill.

When Higgins used to dawdle in and plead for my sympathy, and tell of his mother-in-law in how she'd come to stay and spend the season with them, I used to think, ohmy, ohme. Why don't he show his manhood and send her on her way; But now I have one of my own, she settled down upon us. With her trunks and her handbags some sixty days agone And I find it very comforting to call on dear old Higgins And exchange condolences on the old dames' goings on.

Be beardless yet and thin. Adventures of Theophilus. VI. An Inspiration.

Theophilus called John Briggs "father," but he knew that he wasn't his real father and that the real one was a Methodist preacher.
That was the reason Theophilus went to the Methodist Sunday-school while the rest of the Briggs's were Presbyterians.

Preabyterians.
His father was said to have a large library and when Theophilus was eight-and-a-haif word came that he would receive a box of books from the aforesaid library his next birthday, and his father hoped they would prove an impairation to him.

would prove an inspiration to him.

The boy hoped it would include Swiss Family Robinson and Guiliver and some of the Henty books. Books were scarce in Plumville and the other boys as well as Theophi-lus began building great hopes on the coming treasure.

the coming treasure.

Several were on hand when the box arrived and helped unpack it. One book had a rather gay cover and the title, "Boy Travelers in Arabia." The rest were biographies! There was the life of the Rev. Gilleon Ousley, the life of the Rev. John Newton and sixteen other "lives," all of Methodist preachers.

The expectant borrowers filed sad-The expectant borrowers filed sadly homeward.

Theophilus found the travel book rather interesting. It had some sto-ries of Bagdad reminiscent of "Araries of Bagdad reminiscent of "Arabian Nights." He read it through and loaned it to his friends.

A month later, to the surprise of Mrs. Briggs, boys began borrowing even the biographies. Bogus Spore and Tag Huckleberry came for them and even "Tough" Barton carried away three in succession.

Mrs. Briggs asked about it. "Well, mamma, you see." The Mike Shearman and kid shear the fore the end of the fourth round. Some of Bert's most rabid admirers look to see him put Steve out stiff on the canvas but if he does he will surely have to go some.

The semi-windup will find Gooseman and Kid Mende firing away at each other, and undoubtedly at close range. Mende doesn't know what backing up means, and Goozeman is about as aggressive a feather as there is in the business. Here is a scrap that should keep the forowd on the tops of their chairs throughout the entire four rounds. Tommy O'Brien and Gene Watson will exchange compliments. Gene has been showing fine work here lately and has improved in his hitting. He will undoubtedly be on top of O'Brien at all times.

And, oh, boys! how about Teddie Frenchie and Joe Rooney? This should be a Killkenny cats affair. The only way to keep Rooney from on top of a man is to lock him up, Joe is a sure spitfire for action and Teddie should be put to his best to stand him off. The other bouts are: Goat Lavin va. GEORGE MERCER GOES TO CALIFORNIA

George Mercer, Esq., who for many years has successfully managed the business under the name and style of Nicoll The Tailor, has been promoted and will remove to Los Angeles, where he will direct the work of several stores for the same company. Mr. Mercer has been a most useful citizen in Des Moines. He is full of new ideas, and has been a constant and active member of a number of our commercial bodies. He has given special thought and attention to the Des Moines Ad Club. He has been useful in every line of commercial and humanitarian work. All the money-raising ends of the great war had his help. He knows how to keep a store, and he knows how to make friends. He makes friends by deserving them. Des Moines regrets to lose him but the community will wish him health and prosperity. When it comes to wide-awakeness Californians can go to school to George Mercer.—Des Moines Capital, May 9, 1920.

By Grace Kingsley. Another clever young lady of the lims has achieved stardom. She is Colleen Moore, who has just signed up a long-term contract with Marshal Neilan.

By the terms of her contract, Miss Moore is to receive one of the largest salaries ever paid a young star, beside playing leading roles in Neilan productions for the First National and later the Associated Producers. The contract was awarded Miss Moore as a result of her exceptional work in "Dinty," in which Wesley Barry, the kid actor, is started. The feature is now being produced at the Hollywood studios.

"The Fortune Tell-er." The picture is on view at Tally's Broadway.

Of course, Miss Rambeau had the advantage of two seasons in the spo-ken version in New York and on the road, to account in part for her proficiency. But in any case I think the author of the book, and B. C. Hilliam is responsible for the lyric and music.

While "Buddies" is not strictly speaking a musical comedy, it may be accurately described as a comedy with music. The scene is quaint Brittany. The heroine is a peasant maid of this devastated land, and the hero an American soldier billeted in her home, just after the sisning of the armistice.

Julie's problems spring from the excruciating shyness of her soldier lover, apparently an insurmountable barrier to the declaration of his intentions, and the machinations of the dyed-in-the-wool villain who is intent upon ruining the good name of Julie's twin brother, who has given his life for France, unless she will marry him.

The young American's "Buddies" do all they can to forward the romance, one of them even going so far as to involve his own personal happiness by aiding his pal.

In the company are Denman Maley, Olive Reeves-Smith, Joseph Herbert, Jr., and Ignacio Martinetti.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Babcock Talks of Crops and Currents; News of Business Day.

D. T. Babcock, resident pariner of Blyth, Witter & Co., is back from a trip through Northern California, which included an inspection of the development being made by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, with their great Pitt Pitters and Electric Company, with their great Pitters and Pi Pacific Gas and Electric Company, with their great Pitt River power project, through which it will eventually produce 500,000 horse power, by diverting this stream in a very inexpensive manner from its bed and carrying it along the side of the mountain in a contour, and finally dropping it through a generator.

Mr. Babcock is an enthusiastic believer in the future of hydroelectric power in California, upon which the prosperity and industrial importance of the State in large measure depends. The Pitt River project.

portance of the State in large measure depends. The Pitt River project, he says, is especially attractive because the flow of this river does not vary to any appreciable effect; is not fed by melting snow, or by rains, and consequently is not dependent upon coally reservoirs. He thinks that had this project been carried out ton years ago, the oil shortage would have been at least retarded for many years.

The Los Angeles Investigator also visited the Sutter Basin, which he found an ideal reclamation project, producing cereals and vegetables in plentiful profusion. On one tract of 1500 acres planted to melons, the crop now being harvested, and which is very largely sold, is calculated to bring in $450,000 and the land will then be replanted to cauliflower and cabbages and be ready for another harvest by February 1.

This district is also practically independent of rainfall conditions through the operation of a $2,000.000 irrigation and drainage system, Labor on this project, he sara, is all American, it being one of the few companies which has not displaced the American worker with the oriental.

INCOME TAX LOSSES.

Income tax statements for 1920 will show some heavy losses in all probability. The public which bought at the high prices current early in the year has thrown a percentage of their holdings overboard. This depreciation will appear in income statements. Diminished purchasing and a reduction of spending activities will also have their effect.

A Solution of an Investment Prob

Have you given any thought to readjustment of your holdings to meet p If you own any low-priced bonds which are causing you anxiety, your not exceptional, ner is it hopeless.

The world war has created an opportunity for the American bond buyer to at very low prices, seasoned Government bonds which have been held by Europe

Their opportunity lies in the fact that they can take advantage of two d

For example, you can now purchase-

ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT EXTERNAL STERLING 43 at a discount of about 38% from pre-war prices, plus a discount of about 25%

Take for example $5000 par value 4½% bonds selling at 76. At the price of 76, $3800 would be received from their sale, which amount would price of 76 at $435 flat per £200. The annual income on the 4½% boat $225, whereas the annual income on the Argentine 4's at the present rate of exchange $255.50, and at the normal rate of exchange would be $340.65. The increase in the normal income is $115.65, or over 50%.

At maturity $5000 would be received from the 4½ % bonds compared with $650 from Argentine 4's if exchange remained at its present rate of $3.65 and $8516 it

The net result of this trade is an increase in income from $30 to $115 a year an increase in the principal of from $1387 to $3516, according to the rate of exchange This bond meets a problem which every investor is anxious to solve as well as an external obligation of one of the foremost governments of the world.

We will be glad to discuss the matter further with you.

on the Pacific Coast. This we must remember in the attempted development of our business relations. EXPERIENCED MAN NEEDED.

"With the coming of the Goedysar factories and the bringing to Los Angeles of rubber from the Orient, and with the development of Imperial Valley and Arisona cotton, the cotton development, both in production and in manufacturing, of Bouthern California is only in its infancy, and what is needed here, we believe, is the bringing in of a man of Mr. Day's wide banking experience in a cotton country in addition to his wide acquaintance and ability in all banking lines."

Born in Ladonia, Tex., Mr. Day is the son of Col. Samuel Day. The new vice-president of the First National entered commercial life before reaching his majority and has a long experience in banking and financial matters. He assisted in organizing the Ladonia National Bank and the Traders' State Bank of Dallas he became cashier of the consolidation of the Traders State Bank with the First State Bank of Dallas he became cashier of the consolidated institution and remained in that capacity until four years ago, when he became first vice-president of the City National Bank of Dallas. Mr. Day has been prominent in social and religious circles at his 7exas home. He was a member of the Gaston Avenue Baptist Church of Dallas; a member of the Dallas Country Club; the Dallas City Cub. He distinguished himself in Liberty Loan and Red Cross campaigns and has a wide acquaintance not enly in Texas, but in the surrounding States.
